Launch Junior College Campaign In L-W Area

A group of Lincoln-Way High School District residents are making plans to canvass the area in an endeavor to acquaint the people with the plans for forming a junior college district.

There is not a great deal of time left for the campaign as the referendum date is Feb. 18, but those in charge are enthusiastic and are confident of success, according to Ronald Whitaker, New Lenox insurance agent.

A PTO meeting at Oakview School, New Lenox, slated for Feb. 14, will serve as an opportunity for the college district proponents to expound their views and facts and a mass meeting is planned for the Lincoln-Way High School gym for a public discussion of the project. The date for this meeting has not been announced yet by the committee in charge.

One of the points stressed in the college campaign is the cost. The finance division of the general committee says that the college can be operated on a 9.5 cents tax rate, and that such a rate would hold for a number of years.

The proposed district, which includes all of Will County except the Crete, Beecher and Peotone Unit School Districts, most of Grundy County and a couple of areas in Kendall County--Newark and Lisbon--now has an assessed valuation of approximately $850-million, according to Attorney Kenneth Timm who is chairman of the Tri-County Junior College Committee. He added that the finance committee, headed by James Grumley, certified public accountant, had stated that with this valuation a $10-million bond issue could be retired with a 2-cent levy.

It was not anticipated that any junior college board elected would ever seek such a bond issue, unless of course the state ran out of money for junior college building aid. As of now the state is supposed to pay 75 per cent of the building costs for a junior college but it is not expected that it would OK a $40-million plant. The $10-million figure was used to show the financial strength of the proposed district, Timm said.

He also said that while it was impossible to come up with a figure for the tuition the college would charge until all the costs are known, it was expected and hoped that it could be held to $200 a year, a substantial cut from the present charges.

Under the junior college law the legislature legalized a raid on high school funds. High schools not in a junior college district must pay tuition costs for residents who attend such an institution. The assembly allowed a 3-cent tax to apply on such costs but it is generally agreed such a sum would just be a start and the bulk of the money would have to come from the high school's educational fund at the expense of the teachers, the students and the taxpayers.

From a dollar and cents view, it was pointed out by junior college proponents and grudgingly admitted by opposition forces, it would be cheaper to become a part of the proposed college district than to stay outside. Sam Saxon, Plainfield attorney and one of the group pushing for the college district, pointed out that the argument many have that the responsibility for providing college instruction for high school graduates should rest with the students and their parents, no longer stands up.

"The state washed that out when it passed this junior college law. It is not a question of whether we should pay junior college costs--we have to pay them."

Timm said he was unable to answer the question of where the proposed college would be located--legally and technically that is something for the junior college board to decide--but he favored a location that would be more or less central and easily reached by mass as well as private transportation.

SPECIAL SECTION

Because of widespread interest, the special section on juvenile delinquency which had been scheduled for publication in the current issue of this newspaper has been delayed for a week to permit a more comprehensive report on this vital subject.

Watch for the special section in next week's issue which touches authoritatively on all areas of one of the most pressing problems of the day.

Masked Bandits Raid Home

Three masked bandits, at least two of them armed with pistols, broke into the home of Eugene Eisenbrandt, 48, at 245 White St., Frankfort at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning while the fog lay heavy on the countryside, tied him up, broke into a safe and ransacked the house, apparently in a search of money.

They succeeded in chiseling open the safe but found it contained only papers of no value except to the owners and had to be content with $55 they took from Eisenbrandt.

They threatened to torture and kill Eisenbrandt unless he told them where the $50,000 they expected to find was hidden. He finally convinced them that there had never been any large sums of money kept in the house and the $55 they got from him was all the cash there was on the premises.

The bandits, two of them wearing stockings pulled down over their heads and one of them with a Halloween mask, struck Eisenbrandt and apparently ground his face on the carpet. His face and arms had lacerations and bruises.

The thugs entered the home by breaking in the front door. They left thru a basement door. Apparently they knew that Eugene occupied the house by himself. They seized him and threw a blanket over him. The trio remained in the house for about an hour, Eisenbrandt told Police Chief Ted Massey and men from the Will County sheriff's office and State Crime Lab, and just before leaving they tied his wrists and ankles with cord cut from the venetian blinds and gagged him with rags.

He was unable to free his arms or legs but Eisenbrandt finally did get rid of his gag and began shouting for help. His cries finally penetrated the ears of a 12-year-old niece, Susan, who lives across the street at 240 White, who roused her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burlyn Eisenbrandt, who went to Eugene's rescue. Burlyn is a brother of Eugene. Both are sons of the late Frank Eisenbrandt, plumbing contractor who died last year. Eugene now occupies his father's home.

Annexes 191st St.

The Mokena Village Board at its last meeting adopted an ordinance providing for strip annexation of 191st St. from the eastern limits, about 104th St. to U.S. 45. The annexation is said to take in 70 feet of the lands along the south side of 191st St.

The action was taken by the board to give it some control over subdivisions and other developments expected to materialize as a result of the completion of the interchange of I-80 and U.S. 45.

Girl Mokena Lions Club Essay Winner

Carmel P. Corriveau, 17, a senior at Sacred Heart High School, Mokena, was a district winner of the International Peace Essay Contest, sponsored by the Mokena Lions Club.

Her essay will now be judged with others submitted from District 1B. Thirteen essays were entered in the Mokena Lions Club contest, according to Leo Marcoux, who was in charge of the contest for the Mokena Lions.

The judges were, Mary Donahue, of the Mokena Grade School staff; Jane H. Bills, of the Lincoln-Way High School English department, and Sister M. Angelena, principal of Sacred Heart High.

Last Friday Miss Corriveau was presented with a Certificate of Award by James Marti, president of the Mokena Lions Club, and a $50 federal savings bond by Mr. Marcoux, a gift from the Mokena Lions.

Carmel is a member of the journalism class at Sacred Heart and a page editor of the school paper, "The Piper." She also is a section editor of the school year book; treasurer of the senior class and a member of the National Honor Society.

The contest offers $50,000 in total awards, including a first prize of $25,000, eight semi-final world regional awards of $1,000 each and travel expenses for the semi-finalists to the Lions International Convention at Chicago next July. At that time the winner of the first world prize will be selected. Also more than 20,000 local, district and multiple district awards will be made.

The purpose of the contest, it was explained, is to develop a formula for world peace and to alert the youth of the world to the need for world peace and focus attention on that important goal.

Miss Corriveau is the only area winner announced.

U. Of I. Announces Scholarship Program

A new scholarship program is available to Illinois high school seniors who enroll in the University of Illinois wood technology and utilization curriculum.

The Wood Industries scholarship award program consists of five scholarships varying in amounts from $200 to $500. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic rank and financial need. High school seniors who rank in the upper quarter of their class are eligible.

The program is one effort to reduce the critical shortage of technically trained people in the wood-using industry. There were four 1965 U of I spring graduates in the wood technology and utilization curriculum. They were able to choose from 25 positions open to trained wood technologists.

High school students who have applied for admission and have received scholarship application forms need only return the form. Students who did not request an application form may receive one by writing to Dean C. D. Smith, 104 Mumford Hall, University of Illinois, Urbana, 61801. The application deadline is April 1.

Despite the many opportunities in wood technology, there are very few students in the curriculum. C. S. Walters, professor of wood technology and utilization, believes that on the basis of past enrollments, most qualified students who apply for the new scholarships will be likely to receive one.

The food industry is sponsoring six grants of $1,000 each for undergraduates in the food science curriculum at the University of Illinois, Urbana.

The need for trained personnel in the largest industry in the U. S. exceeds the number graduating from our colleges and universities. In fact, the 1966 demand for food science graduates averaged five job opportunities per graduate, and the average beginning annual salary was more than $7,000.

Any high school graduate who qualifies for admission to the University may apply for a grant before March 1. For more information, write to R. T. Milner, Head of the Department of Food Science, University of Illinois, Urbana 61801.

Students selected for a grant, who complete the first semester of the food science curriculum with a C average, will receive $125. They may continue to receive such grants for a maximum of eight semesters for a total of $1,000.

The curriculum emphasizes training in the basic sciences such as chemistry, mathematics, and microbiology to prepare students for industry or graduate study. The U of I Department of Food Science offers the only B. S. degree in food science in the State of Illinois.

Speaks On Montessori

Dr. Urban H. Fleege, chairman of the department of education at DePaul University, will speak on the Montessori method of education at a meeting to be held at 8:30 p.m. Feb. 22, at the Trinity Christian College, 123rd st., west of Ridgeland, Palos Park.

The public is invited to hear of the Montessori approach to education, developed by Maria Montessori, an Italian physician, in Europe 60 years ago. The method stresses the individual development of the child.

The meeting will inform interested parents of the schools available for such teaching if enough persons are interested such a school may be established in the Palos-Worth area.

May Apply For Absentee Ballots In Tax Election Set At Frankfort Feb. 11

Voters who will be out of the district Feb. 11 or may be physically unable to appear at the polls to ballot on the proposal to increase the educational fund tax rate of the Frankfort Grade School District, No. 157-C, may call or write for absentee ballots.

Application for absentee ballots may be obtained at Frankfort School Office, Hickory and Oregon Sts., in person or by mail, until five days prior to the election, of Feb. 6, it was announced by school authorities. Office hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Mondays thru Fridays. Ballots will be issued on receipt of applications properly completed, it was said.

The board has already made an appeal to the Frankfort Lions and the Frankfort Woman's club for support of the rate increase and will make a presentation of its needs at the February meeting of the PTA.

Time also will be taken at the regular board meeting, Monday, Feb. 6, to answer any questions that the voters may wish to raise. The board meeting will be held in the library of Frankfort School.

Anyone unable to attend any of the meetings but have questions can get them answered by calling the School Office, 469-5922.

The educational fund rate has not been increased for many years, the board pointed out, but the growth of the schools and the necessity for more and higher paid teachers make the hike in the educational fund tax imperative, a board spokesman said.

Flanagan Wins Suit For Building Permit

The Village of New Lenox lost the mandamus suit brought by Martin J. Flanagan and the Standard Bank & Trust Co., as trustee, to compel issuance of a building permit for a multiple building in the development on Cooper St., south of U.S. 30.

The permit had been refused by Village Clerk Robert J. McCleary, on the grounds that the applicants had failed to provide proof that the property involved was served by the village sanitary sewer system, as required by ordinance.

At the hearing before Circuit Judge Robert E. Higgins the court held that the village failed to show evidence in support of this contention and the permit was ordered issued.

Flanagan and the trustee of the property had also asked $30,000 dollars from the village, contending that failure to issue the permit had cost them more because of increased interest rates and material costs.

Caucuses For Feb. 7 Sets Frankfort Town

Walter Yunker, Mokena, highway commissioner of Frankfort Township, is coming up for re-election this year.

This will be the only town office at stake in that township this year. The election is in April.

Candidates may be nominated at caucuses or thru petition.

Harold J. Cooper, town clerk, announced this week that the party caucuses are called for Feb. 7 in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Wolf Rd., Mokena.

The Democrat caucus is set for 1 p.m. and the Republicans are to meet at 2:30.

While nominations may also be made by petitions, obtained from Town Clerk Cooper, the caucuses must be called in townships with a population exceeding 7,500 according to instructions he received, Cooper said.

Two years ago the Republicans put a ticket in the field which was nominated at a caucus. Only one person showed up for Democrat caucus at that time, George Sangmeister, former mayor of Frankfort and a lifelong Democrat. The Demos did not have a ticket as such at that time but there was a People's ticket, which included several Democrats, August Santoro, Frankfort village attorney, was the only one successful. He was elected township assessor.

In the past it was not the usual thing for town candidates to run under the labels of the major parties. They generally ran under such appellations as Citizens Party, Peoples Party and the like.

Issues 4 Liquor Licenses

Before liquor licenses -- any business for that matter -- are issued at Orland Park this year premises must pass state and village standards for safety, sanitation and health, it was pointed out at Monday night's meeting of the Village Board of Trustee Henry Moorehouse, chairman of the license committee.

He reported that he and Fire Chief Arthur Granat and Police Chief Frank Guetter have been inspecting places where liquor is sold.

He recommended issuance of liquor licenses to Farmer's Daughter Restaurant, IGA Foodliner, Kosnar Drugs and Orland Park Lounge. The recommendation was approved by the board.

His recommendation to hold up the license for the tavern operated by Dean Wilde on Beacon St., until he has complied with safety and sanitation standards. Moorehouse said that the physical structure of the building was found to have danger spots that have to be corrected. The inspectors also found the washrooms in need of a thorough cleaning and they added that from the basement odors the plastic pipes running from the washrooms to the cellar might not be properly connected with the sanitary sewer.

Moorehouse also stated that the windows in front do not give a proper view of the interior from the sidewalk as required by law. Unless the premises can pass inspection by Feb. 1, it was said, the license will be denied.

Moorehouse also recommended that the village require fire extinguishers in all business places and stores in sufficient numbers to cover the space. This will be discussed later.

2 Horses Dead; Hit By Autos

Two saddle horses owned by Wayne Mangum 191st and 113th Av., Mokena, were fatally injured last night when struck by two motor vehicles on Wolf Rd. One crash followed the other.

According to the report of Police Chief Roy Newton the accidents occurred about 5:45 Monday afternoon. It was dark but not foggy.

The two horses had gotten out of the enclosure where they were kept and wandered to Wolf Rd. One of the animals crossed the highway just in front of a truck Fred E. Guedleing, of Brightway, Mokena, was driving south. The impact instantly killed the horse and did considerable damage to the vehicle, it was said.

A few moments later the second horse also darted across Wolf Rd. and ran into the rear end of a car driven south by Carl Schlach, 116th Av. and 195th St., also in Mokena. This horse was not killed but was so badly injured that it had to be destroyed.

Neither driver suffered hurt, it was reported.

The court threw this out, there having been a state law passed in 1965 to the effect that persons refused permits could not claim damages from municipalities or municipal officers.

A new ordinance, recently adopted and published last week in this newspaper, plugs the loop holes thru which it was possible to file this mandamus action, according to Trustee Chester Bowman, head of the sewer department.

Now on Feb. 6 the suit filed by the village against Flanagan and the trustee of the property to collect a sewer bill is scheduled for trial in the Will County Circuit Court.

Flanagan claims that when the sewers were installed to serve the development on Cooper St., that the Village Board had entered into an agreement with the developers that they were not to pay for use of the sewer until they had been reimbursed for the cost of installing same.

The village denied ever having made such an agreement, expressed or implied. New Lenox is represented by Village Attorney William Penn.

The funeral arrangements and the names of the surviving members of the family were not available at press time.

Helen Scheer Dies; Eighty Year Resident

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, Jan. 24, for Mrs. Helen Scheer, age 92, late of Peotone, Ill.

Mrs. Scheer died Saturday, Jan. 21, at the Peotone - Bensonville Home, where she had resided for the past nine years.

Born Nov. 2, 1875, in Orland Township, she had resided in Tinley Park and Mokena area most of her life.

Arbury Hills

Civic Association Will Elect Officers

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone: 479-5740
The Arbury Hills Civic Association will hold their annual meeting at the school next Tuesday evening, Jan. 31, beginning at 8:00 p.m. Officers are to be elected for the current year.

Every paid up member of the Civic Association is eligible to vote in the elections. The nominations committee has exerted much effort and many hours of time to set up a slate of candidates. In addition, there will be an opportunity for nominations from the floor on the night of the meeting.

The Civic Association has had its ups and downs over the past six years, and the 1966 year was one of the most active. The credit is due in the greatest part to the officers and board of directors, with the remaining pats on the back to the cooperation of the membership.

Elections are not cut and dried, as so many people think, especially in a local organization. The election of the officials will determine, in a large part, the amount of progress or inactivity that the organization will carry on during the year. Come out and vote, or try adhesive tape over your mouth for the coming year, if the Civic Association is not as perfect as you would like.

The annual Baseball League Fund Raising Dance is quickly approaching. Only little more than one week remains before the big bash takes place.

The big night is Saturday night, Feb. 4, beginning at 9:00 P.M. It will be held at the Mokena V.F.W. Hall on Wolf Road south of the Rock Island Railroad tracks.

The cost will be a modest $1.75 per person, with tickets still being available from Joe Mangan at 479-9105, 9454 West Hickory Street.

Mr. Mangan will also be able to tell you how to be eligible for the special award of a Color Television Set to be presented on the night of the dance.

This annual dance has been solidly successful in past years, both socially and financially, with the net proceeds being used by the Baseball League to purchase the necessary equipment for the ever-growing number of boys baseball teams for the 1967 season.

The First Nighters will have their regular monthly meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. Peggy Clendenning on Beechnut Drive. The meeting date is next Thursday evening, Feb. 2, beginning at 8:00 P.M.

The Summit Hill Cub Scout Pack Number 10 will have their Jan. Pack Meeting at the school tomorrow evening, Friday, Jan. 27, beginning at 7:30 P.M.

There will be a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walles 9411 West Willow Lane on Tuesday evening, Feb. 7, beginning at 8:30 P.M.

This meeting will be held to formulate plans for the annual Cub Scout Blue and Gold Banquet held each February.

If you would be interested in lending a helping hand for this affair, please feel free to come over, no invitation needed.

The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Group will sponsor a film at the school this Saturday afternoon, Jan. 28, beginning at 1:00 P.M. and lasting approximately two hours.

The charge will be, as usual, fifty cents per person for all. You are requested NOT to bring refreshments, and none will be sold there to cut down on the clean-up work.

All pre-school children must be accompanied by some responsible person, mother, father, or older brother or sister, to insure a minimum of confusion.

The upcoming election to establish a Class 1 Junior College District within our area, will be held on Saturday, Feb. 18. The polling place for those registered voters living within the Summit Hill School District will be the Arbury Hills School.

-0-
Those residents of the Summit Hill School District who are interested in filing a petition for inclusion on the ballot for member of the Summit Hill School Board of Directors, should pick up a petition form at the office of the school beginning on Jan. 23. The elections will be held in April.

The lightweight basketball team is having a banner year with four victories out of the last five games.

The reading program is being beefed - up right from the kindergarten reading readiness program on through the remaining grades.

The school was the grateful recipient of a coffee urn from Mrs. Mancke.

The eighth grade, amazingly enough, have had two weeks of perfect attendance at school. Please don't send Junior to school with a three handkerchief cold or the flu, but when he is well, send him back to school. The amount of school aid from the state is based on the actual daily attendance, not the number of children registered.

The Arbury Hills Baptist Chapel will reorganize in to a Church on Sunday, Jan. 29. The organizational Services will be held at First Missionary Baptist Church, Crete, Ill. The service will start at 3:00 p.m. All who are interested are invited to attend. The name of the new church in Arbury Hills will be Bethel Missionary Baptist Church. The church will continue to meet at the Arbury Hills School until a church home can be built.

Re-elect Krusemark Dist. PMA Director

Albert H. Krusemark of Frankfort, was re-elected to another two-year term as director of district 13 of Pure Milk Association at the district's annual meeting in the First Presbyterian Church at Joliet, Jan. 17.

PMA district 13 officers, re-elected for the year ahead, were: President, Richard Erickson, Rt. 1, Mokena; vice - president, Alton L. Thompson, Rt. 1, Peotone; secretary - treasurer, Joseph A. Eich, 1502 Laraway Rd., Joliet; re-districting committeeman, Stanley Peterson, Rt. 1, Seneca; resolutions committee - man, Leonard J. Bols, Rt. 2, Morris; and inter - co-operative relations committeeman, Milton W. Bettenhausen, Rt. 2, Tinley Park.

A.L. McWilliams, general manager of Pure Milk Association, told an audience of 150 farmers and their wives that mergers of dairy farmer cooperatives of the Midwest and stronger co-operation between these groups would prove the most effective means of strengthening prices paid producers in the Chicago milkshed and the central states.

McWilliams pointed out that Associated Dairymen, Inc., which seeks better Federal order milk prices for producer members of 35 dairy farmer cooperatives from Lake Superior to the Gulf of Mexico, is working toward mergers among the cooperatives which form its memberships.

"Congressional action is urgently needed," he said, "to reduce to volume of subsidized dairy products entering this country from abroad under import rules which work to the serious disadvantage of American dairy farmers."

McWilliams said there was a step - up of dairy products imports into this nation from eight - tenths of 1 billion pounds in 1965 to 2.3 billion pounds in milk equivalent in 1966.

In Illinois, he said, the Illinois Milk Producers Association, an affiliate of the Illinois Agricultural Association, successfully coordinated the efforts of PMA and seven other dairy farmer cooperatives in obtaining Federal milk market orders for central Illinois and southern Illinois which will bring about orderly marketing and help producer prices.

He said that PMA's proposal for a single milk market order for Chicago, Milwaukee, Rockford and Madison and the operation of a standby pool for handling milk surpluses would strengthen producer prices in southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois. The proposal provides uniform rules for pricing milk in all four markets.

He stated further that this proposal takes into account the need for a new milk market order which recognizes Chicago as the market for establishing fluid milk prices for producers in all the central states.

PMA is working with Associated Dairymen (1) to establish a standby pool which would provide a market and premium prices for surplus milk in the proposed new market area, (2) to secure changes in Federal milk orders which would bring higher fluid milk prices to producers of the central states, (3) to bring about better alignment of prices between Federal order markets, and (4) to overcome inequities in import regulations.

AMONG THE 28 licensed Practical Nursing students at Oak Forest hospital recently awarded their caps were (l to r) Karen Mutsch (Mokena); Barbara Hipps (Burnham); Dor-rine Hoyt (Schoolcraft, Mich.); and Betsy Smart (Atlanta, Mich.). The ceremonies, conducted by Miss Dona Herbst, (right); the school's educational director, marks the completion of the first sixteen weeks of training for the group. (Leland photo)

Spartan Free Throws Snap L-W Win String

A difference in free throws spelled defeat for Lincoln-Way's varsity cage team last Friday night. It was the first loss in Southwest Suburban Conference play for the Knights and dropped them into a tie for the league lead with the Homewood-Flossmoor Vikings.

Lincoln-Way and the Vikings have another game against each other and if both teams continue to take care of their other opposition that meeting would decide the championship.

The Knights loss last weekend came at the hands of Oak Lawn, the final score was Oak Lawn 55, Lincoln-Way 49. While that was going on the Vikings were making short work of Reavis, Homewood-Flossmoor and Lincoln-Way have each won seven and lost one. The Vikings loss was inflicted by Lincoln-Way.

With five seconds less than three minutes to go in the Knights-Oak Lawn contest, Cliff Schaefer hit a jump shot to send the Oaks out in front 50 to 49.

Oak Lawn was then successful in stalling for two minutes and four seconds. Steve Coons was fouled and made two free throws. With 25 seconds left Schaefer tallied a free throw and then with 10 seconds to go Jim Katsmann cashed two more charity tosses and it was Katy-bar-the-door.

Oak Lawn made 19 of its 32 chances from the free throw line while the Knights made 9 for 17. Lincoln-Way had two more baskets from the floor than did Oak Lawn, 20 to 18 but those free throws turned the trick.

L-W led at halftime, 30 to 22 but in the third period the Spartans ran up 18 points to 9 for Lincoln-Way and outscored the losers 15 to 10 in the final stanza.

Coons was high shooter with 18 points while Schaefer had 14. Seltzinger was high man for the Knights with 14 points, Ihde had 11, and Pat McCabe, Stanfill and Eden had 8 each.

Sandburg Matmen Hosts To Lincoln-Way Friday

The varsity wrestlers at Carl Sandburg High School go after their fourth conference victory against Lincoln-Way at Sandburg Jan. 27 at 7:30. The Eagles wrestle Naperville Saturday there.

Last week, the Eagles lost a conference match to Reavis, but won a triangular meet with Thornton and Hinsdale.

Duane Palmer got Sandburg off to an even start as he tied his opponent 2-2. Then, the roof fell in, as Reavis won the next five matches to take a 17-2 lead. Four Eagles rallied for victories, but it was too late.

Quentin Wolff won by a 4-2 count on a takedown and a predicament. Tom Pierson scored two takedowns and an escape to win 5-1. Ray Zadravetz swamped his opponent 7-0, and Greg Shelkun edged his man 6-5.

Altho the Eagles are 3-2 in the Southwest Suburban Conference race, they have an excellent overall record, defeating 18 of the last 19 non-conference opponents. The most recent of these non-conference victories came in the three-team match with Thornton and Hinsdale.

Trailing 51-36 with only four matches to go, the Eagles rallied via pins by Mark Leatzow, Ray Zadravetz, and Greg Shelkun to tie the score at 51-51. In the vital match, Norm Bixman scored on a reverse to win and make the final score Sandburg 54, Thornton 51, and Hinsdale 25.

Season records show Quentin Wolff undefeated with a 15-0 mark; while Zadravetz and Shelkun with a loss and a tie, and Pierson, with a single loss, lead the Eagle scorers.

Powell's Reminder . . . Get Those Plates!

All motor vehicle license plates representing re-assigned numbers and numbers assigned in response to special requests are now in the mail, Secretary of State Paul Powell announced today.

In making the announcement, Mr. Powell reminded motorists that only a little more than four weeks now remain for them to display 1967 license plates on their vehicles. The plate display deadline is midnight Wednesday, Feb. 15. Powell reports registrations lagging behind last year's applications.

Mailing the reassigned and special number plates was delayed about a month because the manufacturer's production was slowed considerably by a strike and an equipment breakdown, Secretary Powell said.

All plates were to be delivered to Springfield by Nov. 1. Secretary Powell said, but because of the manufacturer's problems, delivery was not completed until 10 days ago.

The Feb. 15 deadline, he emphasized, is a deadline for having the plates mounted on the vehicles, not merely being applied for, resting on a table at home or being carried in the car's glove compartment.

This means, he pointed out, that motorists planning to apply for their plates by mail should have their applications in his office no later than Feb. 1.

"Because license plates are fourth class mail, we can give no assurance that motorists who do not allow at least two weeks for processing of their applications and delivery of their plates will receive them in time for the deadline", Powell said. "In some cases, two weeks have elapsed between the time we mailed the plates and the applicant received them".

Help! Machine Can't Read Handwriting

Employers are urged to use typewriters or other business machines in preparing Forms 941, the quarterly return for reporting income tax withholding and social security taxes of employees. E.C. Coyle, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue for Northern Illinois, said today.

The reason for this request is that the Social Security Administration is using an optical character recognition machine to transfer wage information from the Forms 941 into their electronic data processing system. This "reading" machine, which will provide improved service to the public, cannot yet read handwriting, handprinting, or colored inks.
